

Lucy throws Linus for a loop as practice for the Campus Life show gets under way.

Charle Brown at Leigh

"Your A Good Man Charlie Brown," will be presented to the Leigh High Student Body on January 18 at 7:30 P.M. in the Leigh High cafeteria. The Broadway Musical will be presented by the Campus Life Club, at the cost of $1.00 for non-members and $.50 for regular members.

The musical will be presented by students of the Fremont High school and will be under the Direction of Mr. Richard Sherman, Director of Campus Life activities. The original Broadway Musical is currently playing in San Francisco at the Little Fox Theater on Pacific Avenue.

The group has already given performances at the Morgan Hill Boys Rance, San Jose Juvenile Hall, Agnew Hospital, Sacramento, Fresno, and all over Northern California. During this summer the group intends to tour the poverty stricken areas and gettos of California.

Soul Session Makes Debut

"Soul Session" made its debut last Wednesday, January 15 in the Leigh High Cafetorium. Twenty-five black students from Leigh and other near-by schools participated in the session. It is the first program of this kind presented in this area. The complete show was organized by Jerry Johnson, a former Leigh High student. Henry Roundtree, a former Illinois discjockey, commonly known as "the turtle" was Master of Ceremonies.

The music was provided by Soul Affair, a relatively new band, of which Leigh High student, Ray Kendricks is leader. Also included in the program were skits, dancing and singing; some original, and some adapted from well-known shows.

The entire program was sponsored by the Leigh Student Body. Student body card holders are admitted free of charge and others were charged one dollar.

The Eleight staff would like to congratulate all the performers and crew for their outstanding performance and originality.

Snow Bound Students Attend Dodge Ridge Movie Premier

The Leigh High Ski Club took a weekend trip to Dodge Ridge on January 11 and 12. The snow bound group left early Saturday morning and returned home Sunday evening. This was their second trip of the five scheduled.

John Wagon, president of Ski Club for this term has indicated that the remaining trips will be to Heavenly Valley dated for January 25, Bear Valley on February 15 and 16, and Dodge Ridge on March 22 and 23. The reservations for each trip must be made at least two weeks in advance.

There are several meetings planned in the future. Each will be held prior to the remaining trips on the schedule.

Mark Sommer was the winner of the patch contest that took place earlier in the year. He designed a round patch and it included the school initials. All members of the club have already received a patch before Christmas vacation.

On Thursday December 17 ten students from Leigh High School attended a champagne premier of "The Shoes of the Fisherman". This show was presented by the Pal Board of Directors at Century 22 to benefit the San Jose Police Athletic League. Starring in the show were Anthony Quinn and Lawrence Olivier.

The ten students which attended the premier showing were seniors Chris Henry, Art Cabrera, Diane Daniels, Dan Currier, Ben Hulet, Joette Mendenhall, Dan Park, senior class President, DeVonne Sprecher, Brian Himan, and Diane Farr a graduate from the class of '68. There were students from Branham High School and from other schools around the Santa Clara Valley.

Budget Plan Not Enough

The eighteen California State Colleges now have 8,525 more students enrolled than was budgeted for. The college currently plans to limit the enrollment to 3,875 more students than was budgeted for during the remainder of the academic year.

Reasons for the State Colleges exceeding projections and budgeting are the students are staying in State Colleges a longer time than was expected, the number of undergraduate transfers are increasing, a greater percentage of June high school graduates have entered State Colleges since 1965, individual students are enrolled for more units, and the number of graduate students has increased beyond expectation.

To give all students an equal chance the State Colleges recommend mid-year high school graduates seek admission to junior college, lower division students now enrolled in junior college should not transfer, those contemplating part time enrollment as unclassified students should consider extension courses, all applicants should consider means by which they might be able to accept redirection to another state college, and any applicant not yet accepted by a state college should make alternate plans.

Modern dance students don tights and leotards to display their talents.

Modern Dancers for Concert

This years fourth period advanced modern dance class and after school club will present a modern dance studio hour January 24 in the Leigh cafeteria.

Production arrangements are now underway with all art classes working on sets and the 55 students in the performance making their own music. Among the instruments being used for music are distorted tapes, glasses, violins, drums, toys, bells, and a whistle. Committees have also been set up for costumes, sets, publicity, and make-up.

Miss Janie Quetin, a student Physical Education teacher from San Jose State, is in charge of direction for the performance, along with Mrs. Gail Green, Art teacher, as Co-director. Rehearsal chairman, Lauri O'Connor, is also in charge of organizing the girls for rehearsals.

When asked about the concert, Miss Quetin proudly replied, "Its coming along quite well."

Linda and Dan add their own bit of happiness to Leigh's campus.

'Happy Birthday' Linda, Dan

The Seniors of the Month for January are Linda Friach and Dan Park; appropriately chosen, for both of them celebrate their birthday this month.

Linda, originally from Clintonville, Wisconsin, has attended Leigh for four years, and is currently a Student Council Member. Her interest in student government began in her junior year, when she was a representative.

Among the problems in the world today, Linda feels, "The greatest tragedy in this world is the lack of understanding between people, because most people are too afraid to reach out and try to understand others."

Dan, well-known due to his role as ASB President at Leigh has always been active in student government. In his sophomore year he served as a representative, went on to become a Council Member in his junior year, and complete the cycle in his present position.

Dan spoke to his church congregation concerning racial discrimination in America. When asked his opinion on the subject, Dan replied, "The people I respect are those who are willing to admit that they are racist and are willing to fight for what they believe. But I will never respect those who won't admit their beliefs and do nothing to help the cause they believe in."

Linda and Dan plan to attend UCSB, where Linda will study to become an English teacher and Dan, a marine biologist.

'Oklahoma' On Its Way

The Rogers and Hammerstein production of "Oklahoma" will be presented at Leigh on March 20, 21, 22. This is the all school play, and the cast will consist of 45 to 50 Leigh students ranging from freshman to seniors.

The story takes place at the turn of the century during the expansion days of the old west. The scene is the old Indian territory which is now known as the State of Oklahoma.

student body elects council

This week, January 13-17, student body elections were held. A total of eight people ran for Student Council. These were Dennis Milligan, Mike Creagan, Sandra Lowe, Ronald Stout, Mark Sturges, Everett "Skip" Sullens, Gary Vickerson and Pam Watt. (Due to the January 10 press time, final results could not be printed this issue.)

The three candidates for Student Body President were Diane Dianlals, Sam Yu and Art Cabrera.

Primaries were held Monday January 13 and Tuesday January 14. Six finalists were chosen from the eight candidates running for Student Council. Finals were held Thursday January 16 and Friday January 17. Two of the Taking the leads in the Broadway musical will be Jack Vossler as Curly, Teri Slater as Aunt Eller, Alan Miller as Will Parker, Rex Patton as Jud, Rosemarie Frame as Ado Annie, and Jeff Garrett as Ike Skidmore.

The expense for the rentals fees and royalties on the music was $725. The school paid this in advance and will be paid back from the profits of the tickets.

The music will be performed by the Leigh High orchestra and the scenery will be done by members of the stage crew.

The musical will be presented in the Leigh cafeteria at $1.50 reserved and $1.00 general admission.

six finalists for Student Council were eliminated and a Student Body President was chosen. The two remaining candidates for Student Body President were appointed, Vice-President and Secretary.

Thousand To Be Hosted

Over one thousand students will be competing at Leigh in the largest speech and debate tournament of the year on February first from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Participating will be all schools in the Coast Forensic League which including schools of the Campbell Union, San Jose Unified, and other high school districts in the Bay Area.

Director of the tournament and Speech and Debate advisor at Leigh, Miss Marcia Magee has stated, "Anyone interested may attend, and we are in desperate need of runners, timers, and judges." She urges students who would like to be timers or runners, or any parent or faculty member who wishes to judge, to contact her.

Two students expected to place high are Richard MacIntyre and Marc Johnston, both Juniors. Last year Marc took first in extemporaneous and Rich took second in impromptu in this tournament. Competing against the number one debaters in the state last year, both were entered in the semi-finals, and are expected to go to the state finals this year.

Students may enter the tournament whether they are in speech and debate or not. Some events offered are Impromptu, Extemporaneous, Original Oratory, Oratorical Interpretation, Dramatic Interpretation, and Humorous Interpretation.

According to Miss Magee, the tournament will be the most interesting and competitive of the year and everyone is urged to come.

NMT Scholarships For Deserving Juniors

The annual National Merit Test for Juniors attending Leigh will be given February 15 at 8:30 in room 18. The test will last for a total of two and a half hours. A charge of $1.50 will be collected from the students participating to cover the expense of scoring the tests. One hundred tests were available for those who wished to sign up in Miss Mardel Sander's office.

What's Happening

An exciting schedule of events is planned for the following weeks.

On January 17, Varsity and Frosh Soph basketball will play games at Saratoga, Frosh-Soph starting at 7:00. Wrestling will hold a meet against Saratoga here.

At 3:30, January 21, there will be basketball games against Los Gatos. Our wrestling team will travel to Los Gatos for a meet.

The installation assembly will be held on January 22, at 2:00. Representative petitions will be available on that day.

Thursday, the 23rd, Modern Dance will hold a concert at 8:00 in the cafeteria.

On the 24th, the Varsity and Frosh-Soph basketball teams will travel to Prospect to compete at 7:00. There will also be a wrestling meet here against Prospect. End of the Semester!!

The Ski Club will travel to Heavenly Valley on January 25. A high point of the basketball season will be the contest against Del Mar, Tuesday the 28th at 3:00. Wrestling will hold a meet with Del Mar here at 3:30.

On January 29, administrative classes will hold their representative elections.

On Friday, the 31st, the Key Club will put on a rally to spark interest in the basketball game that night against Camden. At 3:30, Camden will travel here for a wrestling scream meet.

Those qualifying on the basis of their test scores will be eligible as semi-finalists. The semi-finalists will take the SAT test as seniors and if their scores are high enough they will be eligible for a scholarship from one of the large industries who sponsor the program.

From the eighty students who took the test last year, only two students, Linda Friach and Annette Wheeler made the semi-finalists.

Spirit Overemphasized?

There is, on campus, a growing concern over the emphasis on spirit. Spirit is a good thing when it is not used to extremes. It seems that spirit is becoming extreme in that the idea is to come to the game so Leigh can get spirit points and win the spirit trophy.

We found that spirit trophy competition was begun five years ago because of the very low quality conduct of the students at the games. The trophy was supposed to revive school pride and upgrade the general conduct at the games.

It has become a problem now, in that all the spirit is being applied at the games. There are many other areas of school life that should be supported by school spirit. Areas such as music, drama, speech and debate each have several events during a school year and depend largely on student support.

Generally, we feel that if some of Leigh's spirit could be applied in more academic areas, it would provide a better all-round education for the entire student body.

Kiddie Kapers

Miss Jamie Stanley, journalism teacher and advisor of the newspaper staff at Leigh was born in Houston, Texas. She graduated from the College of Holy Names with an English major and from there did post graduate work at the University of California where she obtained her teaching credentials.

Upon graduation she was voted the "most clever" student in her entire graduating class and received a journalism medal.

When Miss Stanley was eighteen months old she pulled some stunts that will not be forgotten neither by her mother. It was time for her afternoon nap and the house was full of guests. She was the center of attraction, and she knew it. She wasn't going to let a nap spoil it all, so she caused all the commotion possible. When she received no results, she picked up her favorite

"Okey little beanie, settle down" orite toy, a teddy bear, spanked it good, and said, "So there!" Then, satisfied, she lay down peacefully for her nap.

Another little trick happened one day when Jamie's mother had just dressed her in her best clothes and gone to get dressed herself. When she went into the bathroom, there sat little Jamie in a bathtub full of water, clothes and all.

Roland Regvall's two striped '61 Volvo is January's Car of the Month.

Power Up With Volvo

Chosen as January's Car of the Month is Roland Regvall's '61 B Volvo.

Under the hood of this modest little machine stands a bored out 120 h.p. engine equipped with an ISKY cam, special headers, and a heavy duty oil pump. The gas is injected by two single unit carburetors.

For class in the coal black interior, Roland has added a Muntz Blue-light tape deck with walnut finished speakers. The dash is loaded with such extras as Stuart Warner gauges for precision tune-up and a tachometer.

Lucas Ranger Rally Lights and custom racing stripes were added to give it the "clean" look. Roland drives in comfort with his punched out wheel wells surrounded by Good-Year Blue-streak tires. The car is always ready to "pick-up" with its heavy-duty clutch and 4:56 rear-end.

Gimps Go Limping Along

Fashion has taken many turns in the past few years, and some fashions have turned out to be fads. Here at Leigh such a fad is spreading. It is now fashionable to be on crutches.

The practice of injuring legs and feet has been largely accepted by many athletically inclined students at school. Some notable people who joined the "in crowd" in the last few months are Ann Kinsey, song girl; Steve Mayo, athlete; Dan Currier, senior class president; Wayne Sullens, athlete; and Nancy Bemis, song girl.

As Miss Bemis says, "When you see another person on crutches, you just identify with them. If you like to meet people, break a leg. Of course, the crutches hassle your arm-pits, but it pays off in the end."

What is your favorite television program and why?

Martha Robinson Junior--Jack La Lanne show because I live in constant fear of becoming fat.

Karen Furtado Junior--Romper Room because I'm a good Doo-Bee.

Sue Callat soph.--The Avengers because it's exciting.

Laura Schaffer Junior--The Mod Squad because they're mod.

Kathy Anderson soph.--Here Come the Brides because it's new.

Joani Sovel soph.--Rowan and Martin because I like the continued flashes.

Diane Thomas Junior--Julia, because I like the name Earl J. Waggedorn.

Diane Daniels senior--It takes a Thief because Robert Wagner is such a bunk.

Dennis Earnhart Junior--It takes a thief because of all the good lookin' chicks.

Sharon Judd senior--Mod Squad. I watched it once and I liked it. Lincoln's out of sight.

Steve Mayo senior--Mod squad because Julie's out-a-sight and all right.

Sam Yu senior--Rowan and Martin because they make everything funny. They're kind of sarcastic and very enjoyable.

Linda Rates Among Best

How many sports enthusiasts have ever attended a track meet? If you haven't, you are depriving yourself of some very exciting and interesting events.

At your next meet, don't be surprised if you spot Linda Langford, a Leigh senior, out on the track throwing the discus a fantastic distance.

Linda first became interested in track at the age of twelve when she set the United States American shot put mark for the 12-13 age group.

As the proud owner of over 108 medals, most of which are first and second place, Linda has traveled as far as Colorado to attend her many meets.

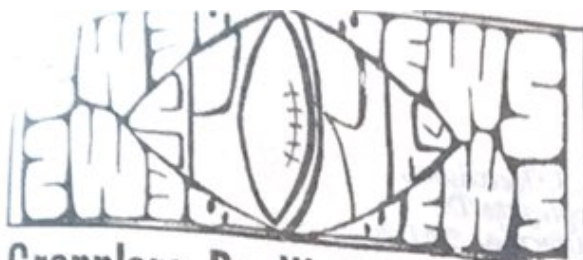

At the fifteen Miss Langford was the California State girls' discus champion. In 1968 at Hanfa, California, she broke the meet's discus record for five years as her throw beat the record by more than eight feet. In the state meet in San Bernardino, Linda grabbed first place in discus and took third in the javelin event. At Paradise, Linda broke the New Pacific Association record in the shot put and placed first in the discus event. Traveling to Aurora, Colorado, last summer, Linda broke the 14-17 American, National and Colorado records by throwing the discus 147 feet, 4 inches.

Just recently Linda was greatly honored by being voted to the 1968 All-American team by the A.A.U. Track and Field Committee in Las Vegas.

Grapplers Do Well in Novice, But Blackford Pins Matmen

Thirteen Leigh High matmen took an overall third place in the West Valley Athletic League Novice Tournament held at Branham High School over the Christmas vacation.

The top three places of the tournament were taken by Leigh wrestlers. Placing first in the tourney was Barry Himan followed by Ken Pedra in second and Mike Collins in third place.

To qualify as novices, the wrestlers must not have entered in any varsity league matches.

Leigh dropped it's last two meets as Westmont defeated the matmen 46-10 and Blackford won 47-10 on December 20 and January 10, respectively.

The only Leigh man able to beat his opponent in the Westmont match was Barry Himan. Jim Hickey got five points for Leigh when his man failed to appear. John Olsen brought home some points for the Longhorns as he was able to tie his opponent.

Against the Braves, Scott Gardner and Barry Himan were the only grapplers able to score for Leigh. Both men did a fine job as they were able to pin their men.

Leigh will host Saratoga today in the small gym for their fourth league meet. In the future the Longhorns will travel to Los Gatos to meet the Wildcats in a match on Tuesday, January 21.

Longhorn defense collapses on Westmont center in the January 7th game which was won by Leigh 46-45. Defense consists of Bruce Moore (12), Bill Scott (13), Cliff Osborne (14), Steve Mitchell (25), and Ken Krokos (33).

Leigh Netters Win Two

During the Christmas vacation, Leigh's varsity basketball team won their first league victory of the season. The Longhorns defeated Campbell 78-65.

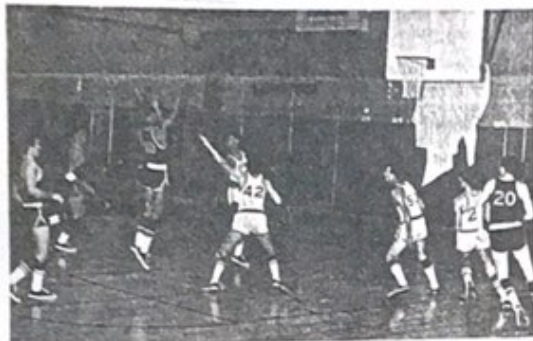

Leading the Longhorns to victory was Doug Oliver, who scored thirty-three points. Doug's brother, Steve, was next high scorer as he put in fourteen points.

The Longhorns picked up their second league victory on January 7th at Westmont. Leigh edged the Warriors 46-45. Leigh played very well, considering that four of their players were at home sick. This included league scoring leader, Doug Oliver.

Both teams shot coldly in the first quarter as the quarter ended in a 9-9 tie. Westmont took the lead in the second quarter and held a 21-17 lead at the end of the first half.

Westmont increased their lead in the third quarter and as the fourth quarter started, held a seven point lead. Then in the fourth quarter, Leigh began scoring consistently and finally gained the lead with about two minutes remaining, and never lost it.

Leading the Longhorns scoring was Bill Scott, who made twenty-two on eleven field goals. Bruce Moore was next high scorer for Leigh as he made nine points. Other Leigh scorers were Steve Mitchell with seven points, Cliff Osborne with five and Greg Theil with three points.

Fresh-sophomore Bob Ichen (10) fires a shot in hopes of increasing Leigh's lead in the Blackford game won by the Baby Bulls 55-48. Looking on are Longhorns Rick Miller (31), Gary Mudditt (25), and Wayne Cope (20).

Flu-hit Bulls Down Warriors, Braves

The Flu-bug has even hit the Fresh-Soph Basketball squad this year, but to no avail for the Westmont Warriors and the Blackford Braves. The Baby Bulls defeated the Warriors 55-48 and the Braves 52-43.

The Bulls even though missing the services of top scoring guard Brian Shelby, got great support against Westmont from Jim Key who picked up the slacks and hit for 23 points. Jim hit 21 of his 23 points in the second half. Wayne Cope and Rick Miller were the big rebounders for Leigh. Together they controlled the boards in both halves which enabled Leigh to fast break more abundantly.

Last Friday on their own home court against the Braves the Baby Bulls proved they weren't Baby Bulls. Brian Shelby sat on the sidelines and watched his teammates take a commanding half-time lead 32-19. The Bulls never relinquished their lead because of Rick Miller's great rebounding effort on the boards. He dominated them all game as he has done so many times this season.

The high point men for Leigh were Jim Key with 20 points, Bob Ichen who played his best game so far this year, with 14 points and Wayne Cope with 13 points.

The next Fresh-Soph game will be played at Saratoga tonight.

Kickmen Win In First Test

Leigh's initial Varsity soccer venture was successful as they downed the experienced Camden Cougars 2-1, Thursday, January 9 on Leigh's field.

The first half was a tough battle as the Longhorns led 1-0 on a goal by Mike Grana.

In the third quarter Leigh opened up a 2-0 lead on a goal by Art Cabrera. Later in the 4th period Camden scored making the score 2-1. The rest of the game, again, became a defensive struggle with Camden occupying Leigh's territory most of the time. Time and time again John Barrett, Pat Denevan, Kamil Btkul, who played an outstanding all-around game, Alan Hedwall repulsed Cougar efforts deep in Longhorn territory. Since the Cougars were undefeated going into the game having won one and tied one it would appear that the Longhorns have a strong squad.

The Junior Varsity game which followed the Varsity match was another tight defensive struggle with Leigh again prevailing, this time by 1-0 on a goal by Bill Gibson.

PRANCING PUCKERS PULVERIZE OPPONENTS

The Leigh Girls Sports hockey and basketball teams played host to Westmont on January 9. Westmont picked up their first win this season by defeating both hockey teams. Basketball was successful with a 7-1 win.

Phyllis Moberly's hockey team lost a close game 1-0. Sue Barki's team also fell short, losing 4-3. Sue scored a goal for her team, along with Lynn Schwartzberg who contributed two.

Sue Mauer's basketball team won 20-18 and 14-10. Diane Dantel's team won 32-8 and 16-3. Chris Hachinski's team was victorious with a 38-8 and 20-12 wins. Margaret Schillage's team also won 9-8.

On December 19 Leighs hockey and basketball teams challenged Del Mar at their school. Hockey split with a 1-1 finish. Basketball also tied 3-3.

Sandy Bazluk's hockey team won 4-0. Kim Mostad was credited with three goals and Lynn Schwartzberg with one. Olivia Fritz's team could not come from behind and lost a tight game 1-0.

Basketball had Sue Mauer's team to account for two wins by scores of 16-8 and 22-6. Lynda Swart's team tallied an impressive 10-1 victory.
